

ANNE AIMS FOR THE TOP!

FROM the age of eight Anna Rustberggard has known exactly what she want to be – general manager of a top hotel!

Now Anne, 23, has taken a major stride towards that ambition by being appointed duty manager of Bournemouth's five star Royal Bath Hotel.

Her family run a small hotel near Oslo, Norway, and after moving to the UK Anne took a four year BA degree course in Hotel Business Management. Anne is encouraged by her boss, Melanie Twedde, the only British female general manager of a five star hotel.
